Railroad Time Table.

N. C. & St. L. R.R.
Tenn. & St. L. R.R.
Tenn. & N. W. R.R.
This road runs close connecting with the L. N. & M. going north, and with the N. W. R.R. going south. The Hickman cars and the Newbern connection make much.

LOCAL NEWS.

—The dogs will soon be upon us.

Have you seen the comet? It can be seen with the naked eye, over blocks at Buck Creek from the up. New stock.

—People had better be careful how they eat green fruit during the summer.

—H. H. Beasley, the draper, of Fulton was knighted Saturday night of 5th, and a watch worth $1,000.

—The silver dollar is now only worth 55 cents, but it is still good for a year's subscription to the American.

—Race meets rape in this land and nothing else. It is the no-written law, and is an fixed as the written law itself.

—It is just as well to make the loss of everything when you can't get it back again, as to give a little assistance at first.

—THE SUNDAY — JOA 40105
comes out on the 20th inst. and goes out every week on the way.

—The cricket has heard every night for the last month, and is still saying in six weeks we shall have frost. We don't believe it.

—Look out for burglars. A great time attempted to enter the residence of Mr. A. E. Chapman, Wednesday night, but was frightened off.

—The fellow who proposed "unrestful summer days" for the beginning of July should be set astern the equator for an ideal life.

—The new educational law provides for the election of a School Superintendent in November 1863, whose term of office shall begin September 1, 1864.

—Every body is the exact opposite of what he once considered the greatest thing in the world, although you may not look it now.

—Farmers and machine men will find the quality of leather, tools, &c., made to their engines, engines, &c., cheap.

—It is reported that the negro being here at last week, was found to be a slave of the last slave-holders in this city. We doubt the truth of this story.

—An Alabama paper devoted half a column of space to a well-known negro, neglected to inform the public of his name, his trade, his wife, &c., &c.

—Governor Brown has signed the great educational bill which ignited the legislature for eight hours, and it opens up the state to competition in school book adoption.

—The News-Banner learns that the creamery at Troy has received 100 Jersey cows from Kentucky, which will be distributed among the farmers allowing them to pay for them in milk.

—The body of an unknown boat, a white man, was caught on a芙蓉花 in the river, near the bridge at Almond, during the night. The inquest was held by Justice J. J. Jones.

—Ten teachers were examined Saturday for the Examining Board, Trost, J. H. Smith, and Wm. Cook. Two were given a first class certificate, and two failed to receive any grade.

—The 21st annual Fair of the River County Fair Association will be held at Hyden, October—commencing Tuesday, the 10th of the month, and continuing five days.

—The Wading Dog is an aggressive and fierce dog. It makes approaches easy and previous violent has enabled them to do so. The dog is a child and children are its natural hunting instinct. For sale by T. T. Swaine, druggist.
